ABSTRACT

Space exploration and observation have brought mankind into a new interest and rumors, such as, finding intelligent life-forms or terraforming. Supremacy: New-Genesis is one story which deeply influenced by those findings, a story about a species of alien called Skyman which has been colonizing earth for years. Then, a young man named Gage along with a rebel group called The Revolution is declaring a war toward the Skyman to stop their project called project Genesis, which said to be heavily dangerous for human kind. Mimicry, in this story, is becoming a theory which takes most of the part of this work, the story is written to show the idea that in a condition of well maintained system, humans are submissive no matter how hard they are trying to deny it.
